NOTICE

Section 1924, Title 28, U.S. Code (effective September 1, 1948) provides:

"Sec. 1924. Verification of bill of costs."

“Before any bill of costs is taxed, the party claiming any item of cost or disbursement shall attach thereto an affidavit, made by himself or by his duly authorized attorney or agent having knowledge of the facts, that such item is correct and has been necessarily incurred in the case and that the services for which fees have been charged were actually and necessarily performed.”

See also Section 1920 of Title 28, which reads in part as follows:

"A bill of costs shall be filed in the case and, upon allowance, included in the judgment or decree."

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure contain the following provisions:

RULE 54(d)(1)

Costs Other than Attorneys' Fees.

Unless a federal statute, these rules, or a court order provides otherwise, costs — other than attorney's fees — should be allowed to the prevailing party. But costs against the United States, its officers, and its agencies may be imposed only to the extent allowed by law. The clerk may tax costs on 14 day's notice. On motion served within the next 7 days, the court may review the clerk's action.

RULE 6

(d) Additional Time After Certain Kinds of Service.

When a party may or must act within a specified time after service and service is made under Rule 5(b)(2)(C), (D), (E), or (F), 3 days are added after the period would otherwise expire under Rule 6(a).

RULE 58(e)

Cost or Fee Awards:

Ordinarily, the entry of judgment may not be delayed, nor the time for appeal extended, in order to tax costs or award fees. But if a timely motion for attorney's fees is made under Rule 54(d)(2), the court may act before a notice of appeal has been filed and become effective to order that the motion have the same effect under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(a)(4) as a timely motion under Rule 59.

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF ITEMIZED BILL OF COSTS

Undersigned counsel is an attorney of record for Defendants William P. Barr, Attorney General of the United States; Thomas E. Brandon, Deputy Director and Acting Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; Christopher A. Wray, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and the United States of America.

1. Undersigned counsel has personal knowledge of the conduct of this litigation and the facts stated herein.

2. On April 1, 2019, the district court granted summary judgment in favor of the defendants and against plaintiff Edward A. Williams, (Doc. 44).

3. During the district court litigation of this matter, the defendants paid for transcripts of depositions, paid for service of subpoenas on third-parties, and made copies of documents used as exhibits. The depositions listed above in the itemized bill of costs were all necessary for the defendants' development of its case and its defenses asserted in pleadings and on summary judgment. Similarly, all copies of documents obtained and subpoenas on third parties were necessary for the defendants' development of its case and its defenses in pleadings and on summary judgment. All expenses listed herein are within the ambit of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d) and Local Rule 54.1(c).

4. In addition, the defendants made necessary copies of documents filed with the district court (not including original copies of briefs filed with the clerk through ECF). The Honorable Robert F. Kelly, United States District Judge, asks parties to provide courtesy copies of motions and exhibits to his chambers. See Policies and Procedures of the Honorable Robert F. Kelly, at 3; e.g., Shlikas v. Sallie Mae, Inc., 2011 WL 5825660, at *2-3 (D. Md. Nov. 16, 2011) (allowing copy costs for required courtesy copies for the judge under 28 U.S.C. § 1920).

However, defendants are requesting reimbursement only for the copies made of all exhibits attached to defendants' motions or responses; not copies of motion papers themselves.

5. The United States is seeking reimbursement for these copying costs of exhibits. An appropriate cost taxed for all copies is $0.15 per page. See, e.g., Langbord v. U.S. Dep't of the Treas., 2017 WL 3953954, at *4 (E.D. Pa. July 10, 2017) (granting United States' request for $0.15 per page (citing Interfaith Cmty. Org. v. Honeywell Int'l, Inc., 426 F.3d 694, 717 (3d Cir. 2005))).

6. Attached are true and correct copies of the invoices and other documentation supporting the above costs. All invoices were submitted to and paid by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

7. The costs indicated on the Bill of Costs are correct and were actually and necessarily incurred in the case. The services for fees charged are correct and were actually and necessarily performed.

8. Undersigned counsel declares under penalty of perjury that the foregoing costs are correct and were necessarily incurred in this action and that the services for which fees have been charged were actually and necessarily performed.

Respectfully submitted,
